

Our team

URSULA GIEDION

CRITERIA COORDINATOR

Expert in health financing and explicit priority setting. Health economist with more than 25 years of experience. Ursula has advised lower-middle income countries, with special emphasis on Latin America and the Caribbean, in the design, implementation and evaluation of projects and reforms in the health sector. She has been a consultant to organizations such as the OECD, the World Bank, the CGD and Brookings Institutions and the author of numerous publications related to health financing and priority setting.

MARCELLA DISTRUTTI

CRITERIA COORDINATOR

Expert in health systems strengthening. Marcella holds a Master's in Health Policy, Planning, and Financing and a Master's in International Economics and Development. Currently, Marcella is a Health Specialist in the Social Protection and Health Division at the IDB. In the past, she worked at the Brazilian Ministry of Health, supporting the design and implementation of sexual and reproductive health policies, and has served as a consultant for organizations such as the World Bank.

PAMELA GÓNGORA

CONSULTANT

Expert in health policies, with special emphasis on lower-middle income countries. Economist with a Master's in Economic Policy and Master's in Social Policy and Planning from the University of London. In the past, Pamela worked as director of projects and economic studies in the private sector. She was an advisor to the Colombian Ministry of Health and an independent consultant in the evaluation of health programs.

KATHERINE DEL SALTO

CONSULTANT

Economist with experience in health economics and public policy, with an emphasis on development and social protection. Katherine holds a Master's in International Health Policy from the London School of Economics and Political Science. In the past, she worked as an advisor to the Ecuadorian Ministry of Public Health and in the design and implementation of social protection policies for vulnerable populations, both at the local and national levels.